

The partners of Slow Tourism are a cooperatives, associations, public and private institutions, NGOs, businesses who collaborate with our associations to contribute and deepen, in Italy and abroad sustainable and responsible tourism.

There are many different modes of cooperation to choose from based on the final goals and on the characteristics of the places involved.

To become a partner contact us and together we can carry out projects and activities to protect and enrich the natural and cultural resources of our territories.

Austrian

Development Cooperation