

Responsible travellers who join Slow Tourism Club commit themselves to following the principles below while travelling and visiting new places and locations. This means:

- respecting, protecting and safeguarding the cultural and artistic patrimony, the environment, and the traditions of the visited territories;
- looking for opportunities to encounter local communities, while respecting their habits and lifestyles;
- reducing, as much as possible, the consumption of environmental resources by using public transportation means and other services that grant the smallest
  - environmental impact possible;
  - contributing, with the money spent during the stay, to support the local economy, and sustain especially those businesses that show a higher level of environmental
    - sustainability and the valorization of local identity;
    - becoming an ambassador of the principles and values promoted by Slow Tourism;
    - receiving a Slow Tourism Passport, the official document that certifies the sharing of Slow Tourism;
    - receiving the list of available Slow Tourism services;
    - being updated about activities and initiatives promoted by Slow Tourism;
    - promoting the tourism enterprises that participate to the network;
    - receiving a welcome gift by tourism enterprises affiliated with Slow Tourism
